Westin DC Downtown
999 9th Street
Washington, DC 20001

The 2025 Reliability Leadership Summit, hosted by NERC and the Reliability Issues Steering Committee (RISC), will be held on February 27, 2025, at the Westin DC Downtown at 999 9th Street, Washington, DC with a Reception the evening of February 26.

Every other year, the Summit gathers more than 100 leaders of the electric reliability community, including industry leaders, ISO/RTO officials, state utility regulators, key federal officials, and NERC and Regional Entity senior leadership. This year, the Summit will focus on the following areas:

- Grid Resiliency;
- Security; and
- Energy Policy.

Results and observations from the Summit will be used to identify, assess, and manage reliability priorities across the Electric Reliability Organization (ERO) and documented in the RISC's biennial 2025 report (see 2023 Report for background).

Please note that in-person attendance is very limited and on a first-come, first-serve basis. The Summit will be recorded and posted to NERC's website, however there will be no virtual option.

An agenda will be provided in advance of the Summit.
