

WECC Enforcement Training:

4.1 Example Case 5

WECC Enforcement Staff

Exercise Overview

Read Scenario

- Review the information provided about a possible noncompliance

Draft Self Report

- Use the information provide to develop, write and submit a full self-report in the Align style.

Review Self Report

- Review another group's self-report for adequacy from the WECC perspective

Compare and Contrast

- Compare and contrast the self reports you submitted to WECC's ideal self report.

Break into small groups

- 2–4 people per group
- Try to mix CIP and O&P
- Assign scenarios

Review Scenario and Draft Self Report

- Read through the information provided
- Ask facilitators any questions or for any additional information needed
- Fill out the Self Report worksheet, be sure to include all elements
 - Please reference the previous training and hand outs!
- Tell your facilitator when you are ready to submit your Self Report
- Time ~ one hour

Break!

Regional Review

- Read the self-report submitted as if you are WECC
- Check the Magnificent 7 for completeness, evaluate if there is enough information to feel confident in all the Magnificent 7
- Create a list of additional information that you think should be added if needed or questions that need to be asked
- Time ~ 20 minutes

Discuss

Present your questions, concerns, and accolades to the group regarding the Self Report you reviewed

Compare and Contrast

- Review WECC's ideal Self Report
- Discuss any differences, areas of concern, or surprises

WECC Enforcement Training:

4.2 Example Case 6

WECC Enforcement Staff

Exercise Overview

Read Scenario

- Review the information provided about a possible noncompliance

Draft Self Report

- Use the information provide to develop, write and submit a full self-report in the Align style.

Review Self Report

- Review another group's self-report for adequacy from the WECC perspective

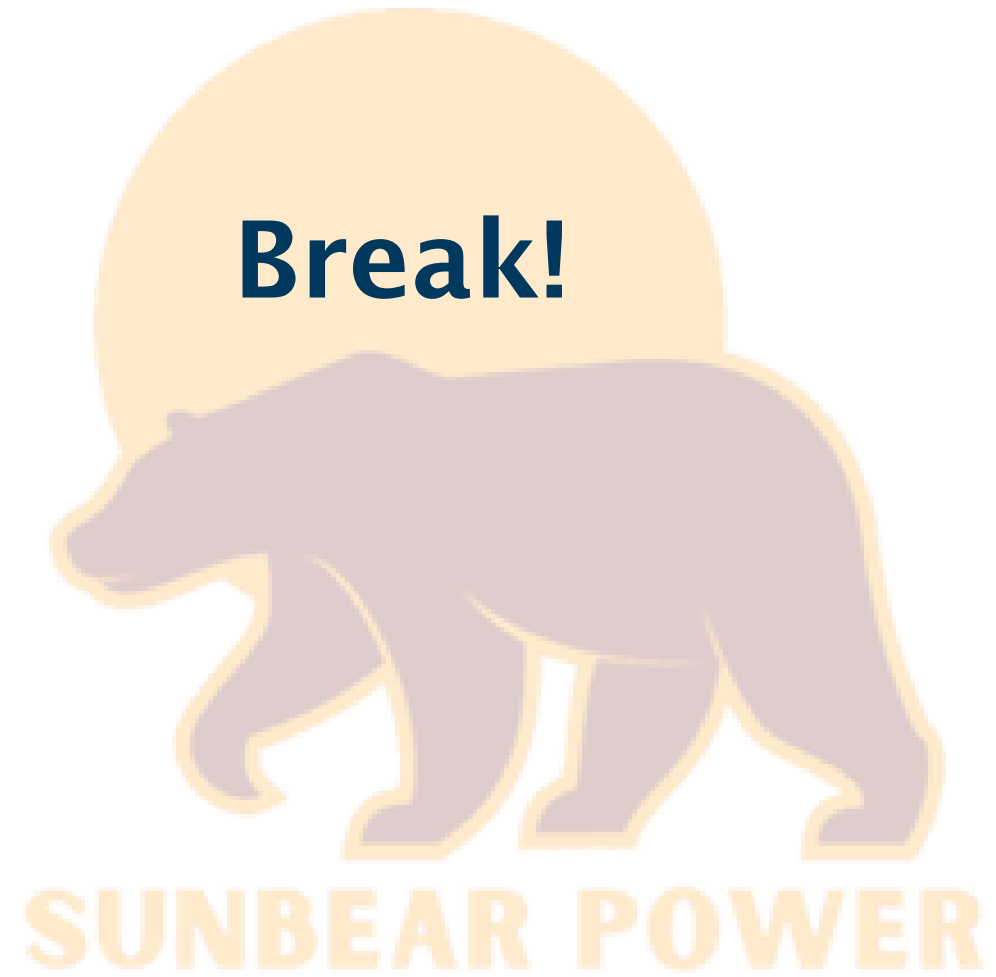

Compare and Contrast

- Compare and contrast the self reports you submitted to WECC's ideal self report.

Review Scenario and Draft Self Report

- Read through the information provided
- Ask facilitators any questions or for any additional information needed
- Fill out the Self Report worksheet, be sure to include all elements
 - Please reference the previous training and handouts!
- Tell your facilitator when you are ready to submit your Self Report
- Time ~ one hour

Regional Review

- Read the self-report submitted as if you are WECC
- Check the Magnificent 7 for completeness, evaluate if there is enough information to feel confident in all the Magnificent 7
- Create a list of additional information that you think should be added if needed or questions that need to be asked
- Time ~ 20 minutes

Discuss

Present your questions, concerns, and accolades to the group regarding the Self Report you reviewed

Compare and Contrast

- Review WECC's ideal Self Report
- Discuss any differences, areas of concern, or surprises

WECC Enforcement Training: 4.1 & 4.2 Example Case 5&6

WECC Enforcement Staff

Exercise Overview

Read Scenario

- Review the information provided about a possible noncompliance

Draft Self Report

- Use the information provide to develop, write and submit a full self-report in the Align style.

Review Self Report

- Review another group's self-report for adequacy from the WECC perspective

Compare and Contrast

- Compare and contrast the self reports you submitted to WECC's ideal self report.

Break into small groups

- 2–4 people per group
- Try to mix CIP and O&P
- Assign scenarios

Review Scenario and Draft Self Report

- Read through the information provided
- Ask facilitators any questions or for any additional information needed
- Fill out the Self Report worksheet, be sure to include all elements
 - Please reference the previous training and handouts!
- Tell your facilitator when you are ready to submit your Self Report
- Time ~ one hour

Regional Review

- Read the self-report submitted as if you are WECC
- Check the Magnificent 7 for completeness, evaluate if there is enough information to feel confident in all of the Magnificent 7
- Create a list of additional information that you think should be added if needed or questions that need to be asked
- Time ~ 20 minutes

Discuss

Present your questions, concerns, and accolades to the group regarding the Self Report you reviewed

Compare and Contrast

- Review WECC's ideal Self Report
- Discuss any differences, areas of concern, or surprises

www.wecc.org