7. Term and Termination

- a. This Agreement shall continue in effect until terminated. This Agreement may be terminated by WECC or Data Recipient at any time at their sole discretion.
- b. Upon any termination of this Agreement, Data Recipient shall return to WECC all Non-Public Information in Data Recipient's possession or destroy all Non-Public Information in Data Recipient's possession and certify to WECC in writing that all Non-Public Information has been returned or destroyed, except as may be stored as a result of automated backup procedures or as may be otherwise required by law, in which case the confidentiality obligations of this Agreement shall survive termination.

- d. Data Recipient agrees that any material breach or attempted or threatened breach of this Agreement could result in irreparable injury to WECC for which damages would be an insufficient remedy. Accordingly, in such instances Data Recipient consents to injunctive relief without limiting the applicability of any other remedies.
- e. If any term of this Agreement is held by a body of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, the remaining terms of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect. In such an event, then in lieu of each term that is unenforceable, there will be added as part of this Agreement an enforceable term that is as similar as possible to the unenforceable term.
- f. This Agreement shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with the laws of the state of Utah, without regard to its conflict of law principles. The exclusive jurisdiction for any action to interpret or enforce this Agreement shall be brought in the courts located in Salt Lake County, Utah. Data Recipient hereby consents to the personal jurisdiction of such courts.
