4. Review and Approve Previous Meeting Minutes

Chris Leyerle introduced the minutes from February 4, 2025.

By unanimous consent, the WREGIS SAC approved the minutes.

5. WREGIS Staff—Updates

Andrea Coon stated:

- Continuing work on generators with a remainder issue of one REC or less.
- No waiver of or increase in 2025 Annual Fees. Stakeholders may review the WREGIS Fee Matrix on our webpage.
- WREGIS will facilitate a meeting to discuss markets and the potential for double-counting. WREGIS does not have a position on this issue but is interested in hearing from others.
- WREGIS's vendor will be transitioning to Amazon Web Services (AWS). WREGIS will provide more information as the time comes.
- WREGIS understands that compliance dates are coming, the transition to AWS will be planned around these dates.

Jennifer Brander announced,

- In-Person Training on April 23, 2021, in Salt Lake City; cost $50.00, includes lite breakfast and a lunch. No online version will be available. The training is designed for people new to WREGIS, and/or needs a refresh; and it is an overview of organization types and generators.

- Additional online trainings coming up this year.
    - A two-part online User Training: Generating Units Registration and Generating Unit Documentation scheduled on March 12–13, 2025. These trainings are similar to the trainings held last summer. No fees or registration cost involved.
    - A QRE training will be scheduled, and WREGIS will announce it.
    - WREGIS plans to continue with these online training courses through 2025 and they will be announced. If members want a specific topic covered, please email wregisadmin@wecc.org.

6.   Public Comment
