2–4 p.m. MDT

1. Welcome, Call to Order — Tim Kelley

2. Review WECC Antitrust Policy — Dena Richins

The WECC Antitrust Policy can be found on wecc.org. See the Antitrust Compliance Reminder below.

Please contact WECC legal counsel if you have any questions.

3. CEO Remarks — Jeff Droubay

4. Large Computational Loads — Tim Kelley

What can WECC do to help you better understand and prepare for the changes to the NERC ROP and standards (to be developed) to address the reliability risks associated with computational loads?

What is WECC doing to monitor computational load ride-through issues like we've seen in Virginia and Texas? Is this a concern for the Western Interconnection?

5. NERC MSPP Implementation — Tim Kelley

Discussion of new MSPP process and NERC updates to Project priorities.

How will this affect WECC's Standard Development Process?

6. Planning Energy Assurance — Stephanie Little

Next steps from NERC on Energy Assurance and risks associated with ensuring power delivery. The upcoming ballot (ERA-001) will be posted at the end of the month.

7. Artificial Intelligence (AI) — Pablo Oñate

What reliability and security risks do you believe AI introduces into the bulk power system in the West?

How can WECC contribute to the mitigation of the risks introduced by AI?

8. Markets Seams Issues — Linda Jacobson-Quinn

Discussion of potential seams issues with EDAM and Markets+.

How can WECC contribute to the collaboration and solutions to address the Seams issue?

SPP RTO (SPP and CAISO to respond to FERC by Sept 30th on coordination and seams)

9. Future of Path Ratings in the Western Interconnection — Shaun Foster

Discussion related to WECC Webinar held in July to discuss the future of Path Ratings

10. Roundtable

11. Wrap up

Antitrust Compliance Reminder

Because this event brings together market participants who may be viewed as actual or potential competitors, we must be mindful to conduct the event in a manner that is consistent with the antitrust and competition laws and in accordance with WECC's Antitrust Policy and the NERC Antitrust Compliance Guidelines. This meeting is public — participants must not disclose confidential, proprietary, or competitively sensitive information in this open session. Attendees must exercise independent judgment and avoid even the appearance of discussions of agreements or concerted actions that may be viewed as restraining competition. Any company decisions that are informed by your discussions today must be made independently. This guidance is not intended as legal advice, and each attendee is responsible for seeking their own legal advice with respect to compliance with applicable antitrust and competition laws, but any questions on WECC's Antitrust Policy may be directed to WECC's general counsel.
