

WREGIS Software Launch Forum and User Testing Interest Form

February 23, 2026

The WREGIS Software Launch Forum (SWLF) will be a diverse group of WREGIS users who offer a wide range of perspectives and experience. The forum will be asked to provide feedback on the software project and engage at monthly meetings with other WREGIS stakeholders about the ongoing software project.

The following criteria will be applied when selecting forum members:

- Must be an active WREGIS user with a login to one or more organizations
- Must sign a non-disclosure agreement
- Must commit to attending monthly meetings related to the software development project and at least one of the following meetings: (1) WREGIS SAC; (2) WREGIS Committee; (3) WREGIS Town Hall
- Ability to offer a unique perspective and/or experience relevant to WREGIS
- Any other relevant skills, experience, or constraints

Individuals that are not chosen for the SWLF or do not want to participate in the SWLF but still want to contribute through user testing can indicate interest in testing only below.

The following criteria will be applied when selecting users for testing:

- Must be an active WREGIS user with a login to one or more organizations
- Must sign a non-disclosure agreement
- Have system expertise or experience relevant to the functions being tested
